Ratepayers' Meeting Poorly Attended

Reports by Mayor, Aldermen and School Trustees Submitted

The Annual Ratepayers' Meeting, held in the Town Hall on Friday evening Jan. 26 was poorly attended by those most concerned—namely, the ratepayers, themselves. Only four ratepayers who were not members of the Council or the School Board were present to hear the reports on the town's business during the past year.

This poor attendance is indicative of one of two things; either the ratepayers are well satisfied with the way their business is being carried on or rigor mortis, (Municipally speaking) has set in.

Highlight of the report of the Chairman of the School Board follows:

There are 7 teachers on the staff, one at a salary of $1800 per annum, two at $1000 each, and four at $900 each. There is also a part time teacher at $12 per month.

There are 4 other employees, Secretary Treasurer at $200 a year, Caretaker at $840, Attendance Officer at $150 and sanitation contractor at $300. All of whom performed their duties with satisfaction to the Board.

The sum of $231 was paid for vaccinations and inoculations.

The number of days school was in operation was 197. There was an average daily attendance of 191.72, of whom 97 were boys and 114 girls.

Considerable painting had been done inside and outside the school building during the year. Two bicycle racks have been installed on the grounds.

Insurance on the building amounts to $40,000.00 and on the contents, $35,000.

To extend educational interests in the town, permission has been given to the Town Band to practice in the school and also to Mr. Novak to hold instruction classes in instrumental music on Saturday afternoons.

The Board contemplates the installation of a metal fire escape the leveling of the grounds and the painting of the fence during the coming year.

The following items are taken from the report of Nurse M. E. Hagerman R. N.—Number of children inspected during the year: 151 number not vaccinated, 58 number without defects, 35, none by with unsound teeth, 106, number with suspected diseased tonsils, 38, suspected defective vision, 24, suspected defective hearing, 4, number vaccinated 50, number inoculated for diphtheria, 137. Dr. Lewis was in charge of this work.

Redcliff Couple Celebrate Silver Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. F. Congram. Have Surprise Visit From Friends

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Congram was the scene of a happy gathering on Tuesday evening, Jan. 30th, when a number of their friends strolled Congram Castle as the Clan Slogan "Hail Hall the gang's all here", rang out upon the startled air.

The occasion was the 25th anniversary of their wedding day. Mr. and Mrs. Congram were married in Redcliff just 25 short years ago—the first couple to be married in St. Ambrose Church after its dedication in December 1914.

The young couple were taken completely by surprise, but with their habitual hospitality, they welcomed their self invited guests and the merriment began. Games and cards and happy conversation were thoroughly enjoyed and sumptuous refreshments were partaken of.

The highlight of the evening arrived when the Viceroy, Rev. H. S. Hammett, on behalf of their friends presented Mr. and Mrs. Congram with a handsome gift in token of their friendship and esteem. The groom of 25 winters, rose nobly to the occasion in expressing the appreciation of himself and his bride, of the kind thoughtfulness of their good friends.

The party broke up to the strains of "For They are Jolly Good Fellows".

The Review joins with Mr. and Mrs. Congram's friends in congratulations and best wishes for continued health and happiness for many years to come.

Do You Remember?

From Review Files, Feb. 5, 1915

On Saturday afternoon, at St. Ambrose Church, Miss Hannah Brewer and Mr. Frank Congram were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. H.C. Gibson officiated. The bride was given away by Mr. A. Saville. Miss Brett acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Fred Courtwell as best man.

ATTENTION LADIES!!!

The attention of all who are hollering for the Red Cross Society locally, is drawn to the instructions for knitting gloves, sweaters, which appear in this issue of the Review.

VOTE FOR HOPE

I hereby solicit your vote and influence in the coming Municipal election for Town Councillor. I feel that my experience and my accomplishments in the past as Chairman of the Public Works Committee, put me in a better position to serve the people of Redcliff in the future.

Yours truly

Jack Hope

Farmers in this district are continuing to receive their average bonuses from the Federal Government, which, no doubt, are coming in handy at this time. 60% of the bonuses are being distributed at present. The remaining 40% will follow in the Spring.

Local Hockey Team Scores Another Win

Defeated, Connaught School, on Monday in Score of 1-0

The Redcliff Maple Leafs, the local Hockey Team, added another win to their successes on Monday night.

This team of young lads under the management of David Floyd and Harold Congram are making a good showing and are putting up a good brand of midweek hockey and not so midweek at that. On Monday night they played the Connaught School team of Medicine Hat at the Arena Rink there and came off victorious, with a score of 1-0 to make a record of four straight wins and losses so far this season.

The game was considered by fans to be the best so far. There were 300 or more spectators, many of them from Redcliff. All the boys played well, Horace O'Leary scoring the only goal.

Another game will be played in the near future, probably on Sunday of this week. So be on the lookout for this game and be there to encourage the lads in this good wholesome sport.

What's Wrong With Young Men Here?

Is It The Five Cent Fee or Can't They Take It?

A few months ago every young fellow in town seemed very enthusiastic over the P. T. classes that were being organized for their benefit. The first few classes were very well attended but interest seems to be lagging lately.

It seems a shame to allow an enterprise of this kind fall through merely for lack of support. A good deal of time and money have been expended in order to make these classes possible and we understand it is the intention to add more equipment very soon. The girls' classes have proved very satisfactory, drawing an attendance of over 30 girls for every class, while the men's class has dropped off to only 7.

Come on fellows, and let's try to keep the classes going!!!

Dr. Fred G. McNally, deputy Minister of Education for Alberta, has been elected president of the Dominion-Provincial Youth Training Movement at a conference held last week at Ottawa.

Girls' Physical Training Class Sponsors Ball

Less Year Dance to be Held in
Cameo Theatre on February 26

Tickets are now on sale for the local Girls' Physical Training Class, and held in the Cameo Theatre on Thursday evening, February 29th.

The Girls are making extensive preparations for a good time and it promises to be one of the outstanding events of the Season. The Grand Orchestra of Medicine Hat will supply the music, which is sufficient to assure the success of the evening.

The purpose of the dance is to raise funds with which to purchase equipment needed for the physical training classes now operating here under the capable leadership of Miss Wade of Medicine Hat.

It is some time since the young ladies of Redcliff have undergone a social function of this nature. This fact and the worthiness of their cause should be sufficient to assure them of a splendid response by all those citizens who are interested in the health and well being of our young people.

Probable Date For Prov. Election Mar. 21

While no date has as yet been definitely announced as to the date of the coming provincial election, it is thought generally that March 21st will probably be the date set. This will bring the provincial election on just 10 days before the Federal which has been announced for March 26th.

No doubt "Drums along the Yukon" will be a tame affair in comparison with the thunder of the election guns and the reverberations from the broadcast that will be heard across this Fair Dominion, before it will be finally decided who is to carry on Alberta's economic war effort and Canada's war for freedom and decency.

Owing to illness among the staff, the Review did not make its appearance last week, for which we hereby express our sincere regrets to our readers.

School Board Receives Substantial Sum

Long Needed Fire Escape. Will Be Installed This Summer

The School Board recently received a substantial sum, released by the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners for the purpose of erecting a fire escape at the school. The work will, no doubt, be started at the earliest possible moment that weather permits.

Obviously this will be most welcome news to all parents of the town as this equipment has long been needed.

Mr. John Soukup is leaving tonight for Calgary where he has been called as a Physical Instructor in the army.

WORLD HAPPENINGS
BRIEFLY TOLD

King Leopold of Belgium has assumed supreme command of all his country's armed forces, as his father—King Albert did in the world war.

Two years of compulsory labor has been ordered for all Jews between the ages of 14 and 30 in the German-ruled section of Poland which has not been incorporated in the reich.

The French army is to receive 8,242,250 gallons of wine, to be served to soldiers in the form of mulled wine. Mulled wine is a hot drink with sugar, spices and egg yolk added to the wine.

British tanker tonnage has gained since the war began, the admiralty announced, denying a German broadcast that 28 tankers had been lost. The report said losses actually were less than half that number.

Lt-Col. Ralph H. Webb, D.S.O., former mayor of Winnipeg, has been appointed chief inspector of catering and messing for the Canadian Active Service Force, the department of national defense announced.

Personnel will be drawn from all over Canada for instruction in Ottawa at a central training camp for nurses and doctors of the Canadian Active Service Force. Major Norman Hallett will be in command.

Ontario will campaign in 1940 to bring United States tourists to the province, using the favorable exchange rates on American rates as one point in the tourist's attraction.

Premier Hepburn told the legislature, Dr. D. D. Duff, French armaments minister, came to London with a party of scientists and organization experts to promote joint French and British war efforts in the laboratory and the factory.

Premier Hepburn announced Dr. A. R. Duff's resignation as a guarantee of the Duff's resignation as a guarantee of the Ontario government. "It was entirely voluntary, of course," remarked Mr. Hepburn.

Royal Bank of Canada Report

Encouraging Advances Presented At The Annual Meeting

In his opening address at the seventy-first annual meeting of the Royal Bank of Canada, President Morris W. Wilson referred to the contribution Canada can make to the Allied cause. Canada's industry has been geared up to the point where we can outstrip anything we have accomplished in the previous war.

Canada's iron and steel industry has doubled its production output since 1918. "Never before," Mr. Wilson says, "has it been so important to produce steel."

Mr. B. G. Dolson, the General Manager, says he expects to see greater business activity in 1940 under the impetus of war orders, greater employment and more general distribution of purchasing power. In his report he showed that the assets and deposits of the bank were at the highest figures recorded in its history, with total assets now standing at $1,014,708,243.

More Than Mere Gift

Seven Years Of Cheerful Work Went Into This Present

The prettiest and most charming Christmas present of the year was one given by a high official of the U.S. Department of Agriculture to a grey-haired wife as a surprise. The gift took seven years to make and is more imbued with meaning than could cling to a humdrum milk can or potted orchid.

The story began way back in 1907, when a newly wedded couple, Dr. and Mrs. Lora A. Rogers, went to Washington where Dr. Rogers began his career with the Department of Agriculture. The young couple found a little shingled, white bungalow in Chevy Chase, where they began their married life. They loved the place because of its intimate charm and its likeness to a New England cottage. Years of happy living made it into a true home and filled it with memories until it was part of their life.

But years went on, the little house became too small for their needs, as Dr. Rogers became chief of the division of research laboratories of the Bureau of Dairy Industries, Department of Agriculture, and his fame as a scientist grew. His experiments and equipment went into the stratosphere balloon of the Army and the Bureau of Standards in London and through this and his wife's great desire for bacteria in the upper air was determined.

For the last seven years, in the gaps of time between his scientific work, Dr. Rogers has been secretly working on a task he has named a miniature bus which he fashioned 5,000 tiny cedar shingles, planned and hand-carved, beamed and boarded all in true proportion, and put them together in a detailed reproduction of the little house, the greatest of facts and complete, even to the curtains at the windows and the overhanging trees and the shrubbery beside the door.

By Christmas Day the long labor of love was complete. He gave to his wife their first home as a memory that the work of his hands had given form and substance.

Upholstery Style Easy To Make

Like getting a new chair when you dress up an old one in a trim, upholstery style cover, finish it with your own hands.

For the upholstery effect, clever choice an all-over pattern like the one in this picture, have a straight seam with inverted pleats at the chair corners.

To make your cover, just smooth the material over the old upholstery, beginning at the top of the inside back and working down over the seat. Pin every 3 inches where seams will be, then cut 1 1/2 inches outside plus for seams. Fit sides and back the same way, baste and try on.

As for the finish, any of the three same diagrams will be smart. For the French seam, baste and stitch a wrong side then turn and stitch on right hand edge on the right side. To make a bound seam, neatly sew broad over seam on right side. For the professional looking welt seam, insert covered cord in seam from right side, baste and stitch on wrong side. Simple, isn't it?

For complete instructions and diagrams for making and trimming slip covers—see our 25-page booklet. Tells how to fit all types of chairs and sofas, has discovered suggestions for fabrics, colors, trimmings.

NOVEL YORK ON GAY
HOUSEBOOR
By Anna Adams

There's a light-hearted peasant-like look about this little houseboat, Pattern 4324. It's designed by Anna Adams for easy sewing and making. Don't you love the charming shape of the neck, that scooped in the back? A delightful effect that you may play up either by using ric-rac or ribbon, pinned across the back and along the neck, or by making the yoke and sleeve bands in vivid contrast. The slim waist and hips are emphasized by unusual softness through the bodice and full skirt. Make comfortably three sleeves to wear with a dress and a gayly flowered skirt fabric for this young houseboat.

Pattern 4324 is available in misses' and women's sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Run 12 inches 3 1/2, yards 35 inch fabric and 5 yards ricrac.

Have No Advisers

Reasons Mistakes Frequently Make Error That Ends Their Rule

The Port William Times-Journal says one of the weaknesses of a dictatorship is that the dictator has to set upon his own initiative and cannot fall back upon the counsel of advisers who are closely in touch with the people and with public sentiment. Unless he is infallible as no man can be, he is liable to error. And Stalin has made some miscalculations which bid fair to wreck the plans of both dictators.

Held Peculiar Place

Red Cap Supervised By Railway Officials Yet Not Employed

To the "Red Cap" is due much of the comfort and ease of travel nowadays. No longer need one struggle with the burden of luggage or inconvenient parcels. It is a convenient place now to be greeted by a Red Cap or to hail one, and be relieved of encumbrance. Thoroughly trustworthy and conscientious, these quick, quiet and well-mannered men gather bags and parcels and run ahead with them; whenever he follows the traveller finds his property nesting safely and snugly in the carrier of the railway car. Commenced in 1892, the Red Cap porter service has a practically unbroken, enviable record of honesty and efficiency.

With but a few exceptions, the Red Cap holds a curious place in the employment field. While he is an accepted part of the station service and personnel, is governed by a set of regulations and supervised by railway officials, yet he is not technically in the railway's employ. The Red Cap is responsible to the railways, but the railway does not bear any responsibility to him. He receives orders but not wages. The Red Cap works for tips only. He is hired and fired by the railway authorities, but he is not regarded as an employee.

The Red Cap job is weighted with responsibilities, for in his care is placed valuable property. If a bag goes missing while a Red Cap is carrying it, he may be suspended or discharged. His earnings are irregular, varying with the amount of work by the locality and the time of year. Surveys show that on an average the Red Cap makes from $10 to $17 a week. A considerable proportion of them are adult, married men, for this job requires not alone physical strength but dependability and experience. That these men have families to support is something which travellers might, perhaps more often remember—Toronto Star.

Has Become Modern

English Town Has A Cat That Sings

London Tit-Bits tells this story: "Every cat, it seems are becoming 'modern'."

No longer do they sit outside the window and meow, when they want to be admitted. They knock at the door!

At least, that is the example being set by "Tiger," who lives at Clifford, England. A dark tabby, Tiger holds the decided view on cat treatment. When he wants to be admitted to the house he rests his hind legs on the handle of the letter box, stretches himself out, puts his front paw beneath the heavy iron knocker, and after hanging on for a moment, jumps away, allowing the knocker to fall back with a resounding bang. If the door is not opened promptly, he repeats the performance. He has also found that he can open the inside door by gently turning the handle with both paws.

There is some talk of giving Tiger a latch-key!

Red Cross Workers

Detailed Instructions For Making Socks, White and Mitts

Balancers caps, balaclavas, scarves and ties are urgently needed, according to a work bulletin issued by the Canadian Red Cross Society.

The bulletin also advised that a Red Cross supplies now are coming in the hundreds of thousands of "balaclavas" throughout Canada were advised to slow down on making sling gloves, abdominal binders, T. binders, pillow cases, neckties, jackets and Hampton pads.

At the same time the branches were urged to devote more attention to the making of dressing gowns, bed jackets, hot water bottle covers, leg bags and nurses' gowns and caps.

Detailed instructions concerning new regulations for army socks provide that the new army sock is to be 16 inches long from top of cuff to under heel. Socks are to be 15 1/2 inches to 16 inches from top of cuff to under heel. Red Cross labels should not be placed on socks, wristlets or cuffs of mitts, as they spoil the stretch of ribbing. Branch inspectors are warned to watch the finish of the toe and heel carefully, and the suggestion is made that socks be given in finishing the toes to guard against blisters.

Socks colors indicate light blue, blue heather or black for the air force; navy blue or grey for the navy, grey for seamen, and all other colors for the army. Balaclavas should be navy blue or white for the navy, grey for seamen, and all other colors for the army. Scarves for the navy should be navy blue or grey, 14 inches wide and 66 or 72 inches long.
